

Morse code is an extremely effective means of communication, and will "get through" where other modes cannot.

Therefore I oppose the complete elimination of Morse code testing for all of the amateur radio license classes.